SPECIAL INFORMATION.

—Klaw & Erlanger's stupendous spectacular production of General Wallace's great romance, "Ben-Hur," enlisting the services of 350 persons, will be presented at the Lexington, Ky., Opera House, February 22, 23 and 24, with a special matinee on Wednesday, February 24.

The advance sale of seats for "Ben-Hur" commences on Thursday morning, February 18th, at 9 a. m., at the theatre box office. It is advisable to file your order for seats through the mail or the express offices will be promptly attended to, in the order of their receipt, when accompanied by remittance and a self-addressed stamped envelope for reply, in order to avoid all mistakes. Applications for seats should be made to Chas. Scott, Manager Opera House, Lexington, Ky.
State, when ordering priced tickets desired and performances.

SCALE OF PRICES:

Entire lower floor, $2; balcony, first three rows, $1.50; balcony, balance, $1; gallery admission, 50c; box seats, $2.50 and $3; matinee prices same as night.

Special attention is called to the rising of the curtain for the evening performance at 8 o'clock precisely, and at 2 o'clock for the matinee. The performance begins with the beautiful prelude, "The Star of Bethlehem." No one is seated after the prelude starts until it is concluded.

All railroad lines entering Lexington have arranged for special excursion rates, so by enquiring of your local agent the date and price of excursion tickets can be ascertained.

THE BEST COAL!
IS What One Should Burn.

There are many kinds of Coal on the market that are cheaper than ours, but the lower-priced Coals are expensive to burn. They contain too much waste.

Try our

Mountain Ash Jellico OR
"Italian" Blue Gem, and you will always be satisfied.
